DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO SALLY OGLESBY

Our thoughts, prayers and deepest sympathy go out to long-time TAMCAR member and former President Sally Oglesby of Crossville on the February passing of her beloved husband Bill. She wrote on Facebook on February 12th: "My life partner of 46 years passed away peacefully tonight. Tomorrow marks the 48th anniversary of our first date. I am so grateful to have such a great partner in life, Bill Oglesby. We had plans for retirement, but it was cut too short."

Sally had kept concerned friends updated on his condition via Facebook since Bill's first chest pains on January 13th and subsequent bypass surgery, rehab and re-hospitalizations.

Services for the respected Crossville businessman will be at First United Methodist Church in Crossville. Visitation will be held on Friday, February 15th from 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM and Saturday February 16th from 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM. The Funeral is scheduled for Saturday at 10:00 AM.

Our hearts are with you and your daughter Alisa at this very difficult time, Sally.

CHERI HOLMES OF BERRY HILL WOULD LIKE TO INTRODUCE YOU TO THE NEWEST MEMBER OF HER FAMILY, MISS DAISY! (AND YES, CHERI DRIVES HER!) BOTH CHERI AND MISS DAISY ENCOURAGE YOU TO ADOPT A RESCUE PUPPY (OR KITTY) TO ENRICH YOUR LIFE. CHERI FOUND MISS DAISY THROUGH BELLY RUBS BASSETT HOUNDS, AND CHERI & HUSBAND BILL FELL IN LOVE WITH DAISY AT FIRST SIGHT (AND VICE-VERSA).

CONGRATULATIONS, RACHEL SLUSSER!
We've been notified that Rachel Slusser, the City Recorder/Treasurer for the City of Greenbrier, has earned the prestigious Certified Municipal Clerk (CMC) designation from the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC). Congratulations on this achievement, Rachel!

Happy Valentine's Day to each of you!
